

Get the job you want with Room for Work

Improve your employability skills with our FREE* 12 week course.

Designed for skilled workers, managers and professionals, Room for Work fills the gap between Jobcentre Plus and expensive career coaching. Everyone is welcome but we specialise in mature jobseekers.

New programme commences 22 April 2014 and runs until 15 July 2014

Every Tuesday 10am – 12.30pm
@ The Warehouse,
St John's Church | Church Grove
Hampton Wick | KT1 4AL

* Guidance and encouragement included! Purchase of £10 text book is compulsory.

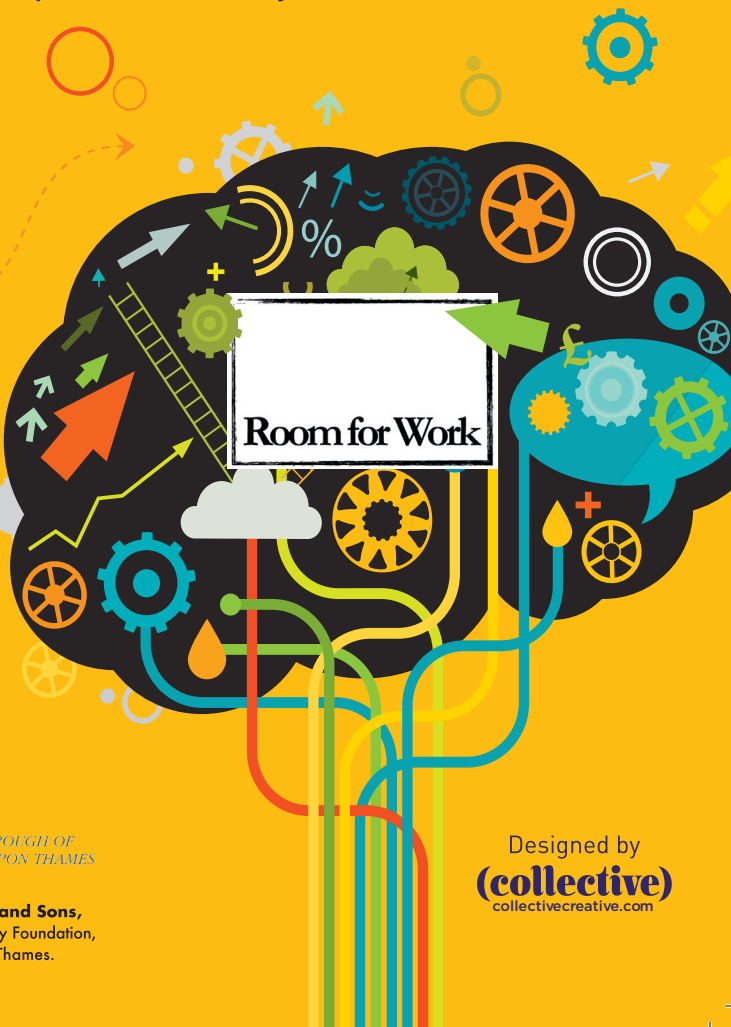

Register Online:
www.roomforwork.org

Room for Work
Skills, Strengths & Strategies
for Employment

The London Community Foundation  LONDON BOROUGH OF RICHMOND UPON THAMES

This course is supported by William Grant and Sons, a donor advised fund of the London Community Foundation, and by London Borough of Richmond Upon Thames.

Designed by (collective) collectivecreative.com

Join us at Room for Work from April 22nd until July 15th, 2014

Tuesday classes

10am –12.30pm | The Warehouse
St John's Church | Church Grove
Hampton Wick | KT1 4AL

In our 12 week course you will:

- Learn current job search methods
- Write an effective CV
- Practise competency-based interviews
- Activate your network
- Use LinkedIn and social media
- Develop your speaking skills
- And much, much more...

Speakers

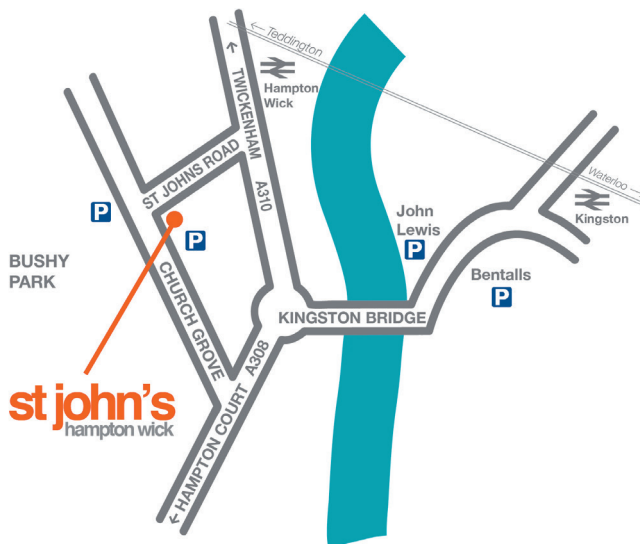

Each week features a relevant and informative presentation by a recognised expert. We include workshops to help you master skills and techniques that will improve your employability.

Programme Leader

Robin McKay Bell is a dynamic presenter and an expert on age and employment issues.

Materials

The course is free but there is a textbook that costs £10. Copies are available to purchase at Room For Work.

Register Online:
www.roomforwork.org

Room for Work

Skills, Strengths & Strategies for Employment